

I strongly support the "Do not Call" legislation in the State of New Jersey. I do not even want people and charities to fundraise over the telephone. This week I received a call from the Disabled Veterans; the caller said fundraisers was not included in the "Do Not Call" legislation. I believe such solicitators are telemarketers!!!

